As an inquirer and person named in this application for admission for RCIA & Faith Formation, I recognize my obligations toward openness toward this process and I desire to:

1. Experience the life of a practicing Catholic by attending Holy Mass every Sunday and on Holy Days of Obligation and by praying daily.
2. If I am not married, I will try to live a chaste life with the help of God.
3. If I am living with someone but not married in the Church, I will meet with one of the parish priests of St. Anthony’s before November to discuss the process that might be needed to rectify this situation as a future practicing Catholic.
4. Maintain good attendance at all classes, meetings, retreats, rehearsals and other RCIA activities.
5. Try my best to memorize the Basic Prayers (Sign of the Cross, The Lord’s Prayer, Hail Mary, Glory Be, Apostles Creed, Act of Contrition) & the 10 Commandments & the 7 Sacraments.
6. Submit all required documents before December 1st.
7. Pay for any textbooks or other curriculum materials used in the program.
8. Participate in the parish life of St. Anthony of Padua Catholic Parish by registering in the parish and assist in its fundraising efforts to support the different ministries (i.e. food sales/bake sales, fiesta raffle ticket sales; School’s Christmas Hawaiian raffle.)
9. I attest that all information provided in this document is true and correct, any changes will be communicated to the RE Office.

I acknowledge that I have read and understand the requirements necessary to maintain my participation and growth in the RCIA program.
